Clinical Student – Adult General Assessment for 2020-2021

Location:
4141 E. Dickenson Place, Denver, CO 80222

Contact for student:
Linda Montagna, Psy.D
linda.montagna@mhcd.org

Student Supervisor’s Credential Level:
PsyD/PhD

Brief Program Description:
Our department addresses a wide range of referral questions, such as psychiatric differential diagnosis; cognitive strengths and weaknesses; cognitive and behavioral impacts of general medical, neurological, and psychiatric disease; learning disability evaluations; personality and interpersonal functioning; adaptive functioning, etc. The student will receive a wide range of training in different types of psychological assessments, including therapeutic approaches to assessment. Externs will be expected to conduct psychological assessments with adults. In general, adult cases will be approached from a biopsychosocial standpoint.

Title and Hours required:
Doctoral student from an APA-accredited program in clinical or counseling psychology, 20+ hours/wk, 12-month commitment. Preferred start date is in July, but this is somewhat flexible.

Minimum Qualifications and # of openings:
One to three openings for third year or beyond doctoral student OR those who have completed all program requirements for assessment coursework, including experience with the Rorschach Inkblot Test. Applicants should demonstrate a strong interest in psychological assessment. Must have good interviewing, test administration, and report writing skills. Must provide a sample report.
Duties of Placement and Miscellaneous Information:
Aim of skill development includes: Appropriate battery development, test administration, clinical interviewing, coordination with providers, medical record review, scoring, report writing, and providing feedback to clients and collaterals, primary providers, as well as coordinate, as needed, with involved systems of care (i.e. outside medical or psychological providers).

For students offered a position, please follow the directions specified on the website at www.mhcd.org under the “Careers” link. Follow the link to Student Placements and then scroll down to the appropriate externship.